07/30/2009	96	ORDER. By letter dated July 15, 2009, counsel for the California Public Employees' Retirement System ("CalPERS") requested a pre-motion conference to discuss moving for certification of this Court's June 30, 2009 Opinion for discretionary interlocutory appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 1292(b). The three-page, single-spaced letter sets forth CalPERS' arguments in detail. By letter dated July 17, 2009, counsel for lead plaintiffs opposed. The Court had scheduled a conference for July 29, 2009 to discuss a number of matters, and the Court had planned to discuss this proposed motion at the conference. Counsel for CalPERS, however, did not appear. At the conclusion of the

		conference, I stated that I would issue a scheduling order, but upon reflection, I have determined that further briefing is not necessary. The Court treats the July 15, 2009 letter as a motion for certification pursuant to § 1292(b). The motion is denied. First, there are no significant issues of law, and CalPERS is really challenging not the Court's interpretation of the law but the Court's application of the law to the facts. In fact, it is not uncommon for investors to form a group to be proposed as a lead plaintiff. See, e.g., In re Oxford Health Plans, Inc., 182 F.R.D. 51, 52 (S.D.N.Y. 1998) (denying request to certify decision for interlocutory review as PSLRA permits appointment of groups, including groups of unrelated parties, as lead plaintiff). Second, appointment of a lead plaintiff is a "preliminary procedural matter unrelated to the merits." Id. at 54-55. Thus certification to the Second Circuit on the questions proposed by CalPERS would not involve a "controlling question of law," nor would it "materially advance the ultimate termination of this litigation." II § 1292 (b) (1), (3). Leave to appeal is unwarranted here. See In re Citigroup Pension Plan ERISA Litig., No. 05 Civ. 5296 (SAS), 2007 WL 1074912, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. April 4, 2007) ("leave to appeal is warranted only when the movant demonstrates the existence of exceptional circumstances sufficient to overcome the general aversion to piecemeal litigation") (internal quotation marks and citations omitted).
