

SCAC Introduces “Current Topics” Section on Website

Stanford - July 15, 2020

The Clearinghouse is proud to announce a new section on our website dedicated to current topics of interest in the world of shareholder litigation. “Current Topics in Securities Class Action Filings” can be accessed directly from our homepage or from the Filings Database, and features topics such as COVID-19, Cannabis, Cryptocurrency Litigation, and more. Users can quickly identify and review cases as well as blog and news articles relevant to each topic. This new addition to our website is just the latest improvement in an ongoing effort to provide Clearinghouse users with the latest and most relevant data on shareholder litigation.
